THREE KILLED ON U. S. 36 IN 4-AUTO CRASH

ACCIDENT OCCURRED
WEDNESDAY NEAR GROVELAND

A suburban Chicago man, his daughter, and the infant daughter of a serviceman and his wife, were killed in a four-car collision on U. S. 36 near Groveland at 8 o'clock Wednesday night.

The dead are:

John H. Fitzpatrick, 43, Palos
Heights, Ill.

Barbara Fitzpatrick, 9, same address.

Barbara Sue Robertson, 6, Palos Heights, Mount Auburn, Ind.

The Putnam county hospital
last morning were the baby's mother, Mrs. Mildred Robertson, whose condition was listed as "critical" and Mrs. Julia Fitzpatrick, 41, who was reported as "fairly good."

Robertson, 21, the baby's father, who is attached to the 101st Airborne Division, was released from the hospital Thursday evening.

State police said Fitzpatrick
was driving east on 36 in a 1953 Ford station wagon and the other two wheels off the pavement on the berm. When he drove back on the highway he drove into a skid and crashed
head-on with a westbound Plymouth coach driven by Robertson.

With cars spun around and occupants
of the Fitzpatrick station wagon were thrown out as the vehicle came to a stop crosswise in the road with the front of the station wagon facing westward south. The Robertson station wagon was facing northward.

The station wagon was then driven by a 1951 Studebaker driven by W. Brown, of Hillsdale,
Ind., who was going east. A 1953
Ford, driven by Velma M.
Miller, Springfield, Ill., going west, also hit the station wagon,
and the occupants in these vehicles were injured.

Miller said Mrs. Robertson was in the wreckage of her husband's automobile.

The bodies of Mr. Fitzpatrick and his daughter were taken to Chastain Funeral Home in Groveland while the body of the girl was brought to the Putnam Funeral Home in this city.

Local ambulances brought the bodies to the Putnam county hospital.

State police investigating the crash were George Heck, of Greencastle, and Charles Wilson, of the Putnamville Post Office.

The station wagon was towed to Scott's Franklin Garage while the Plymouth was towed to the Kendall
Garage at Manhattan.

The body of the Robertson
girl was taken to the Barnes
Funeral Home in Rockville, Ind., where funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10:30.

Xmas Tree Will Be Drive Symbol

A lighted Christmas tree will be set up in Greencastle to indicate the generosity of citizens of Putnam county in supporting the campaign for Christmas presents for the state's mental patients.

The tree will be installed
through the efforts of the American Legion Auxiliary, which is one of the organizations cooperating with the Indiana Association
for Mental Health in the campaign.
The Auxiliary is being assisted in this project by the Chamber of Commerce and the Auxiliary of the VFW.

The number of lights that are illuminated will represent the response of the public to the needs of mental patients. Monday is the last day. Do you have your gift in?

The tree also may be considered as symbolic of the parties to be held for patients in Indiana's 10 mental institutions at Christmas, when gifts will be distributed.

The care and treatment of these patients is one of the major concerns of the state today,
as medical men have said that mental health is the nation's foremost health problem.

For each patient, less than $4
a year is being spent on research in America to find new ways of prevention and treatment. Such statistics as these are cited by the Indiana Association for Mental Health in its drive for public help in the attack on the mental health problem.

Five Yanks Die In Paris Crash

PARIS, Nov. 27.—(UP)—An American military C-119 "Flying boxcar" plane crashed today near a cemetery, carrying at least five men to death in its flaming wreckage.

French officials said the plane
was coming in to land at Orly Airfield at the time of the crash.
It had just received a clearance
for its final approach, they said.
Two and one-half miles from the field, witnesses said, the plane appeared to disintegrate in a flash of flame, apparently from an explosion. It plunged to the ground in fragments.

Crews of firemen still were pouring water into the flaming
wreckage.
One fire chief said he had removed five bodies from the remains of the plane. One unconfirmed report said one crewman apparently bailed out safely before the crash.

The Air Force said a C-119
normally carries four to six crewmen.

Bodies of the crash victims
were taken to the local morgue pending identification.

American Air Force authorities said names of the dead would be withheld pending notification
to next of kin.

DEAN IS MORE OPTIMISTIC ON KOREAN TALKS

U. S. ENVOY SEES DISTINCT POSSIBILITY FOR PEACE CONFERENCE

PANMUNJOM, Korea, Nov. 27.
—(UP)—American envoy Arthur
H. Dean said today he saw a "distinct possibility" his preliminary talks with the Communists would succeed in setting up a Korean peace conference.

Dean emerged from his 28th negotiating session with the Reds in the most optimistic mood since the talks began more than a month ago.

He asked the Communists to give a "world weary of war a longable ray of hope" by trying earnestly to set a date for the long-delayed meeting and seat
Russia by her side as a full participant.

Dean said the Reds suggested Dec. 26 as a tentative starting date, but clinging to demands on inviting the Soviet Union as a Korean War.

NEW RUSSIAN NOTE AGREES TO CONFERENCE

SECRETARY DULLES MEETS
WITH STATE DEPART-MENT OFFICIALS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—
(UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles meets with department officials today to discuss a new note from Moscow in which Russia agrees to meet with the Big Three Western foreign ministers.

The State Department did not disclose the contents of the eight-page note which was received Thursday night from the American embassy in Moscow.
No official statement of U. S.
reaction was expected until after Dulles' top-level meeting.

However, diplomatic officials saw in Moscow's offer a triple play to regain the diplomatic offensive, cause the downfall of the French government and disrupt the forthcoming Big Three conference at Bermuda.

Western authorities believed the Reds had the tense French political situation in mind in the timing of their Big Four meeting proposal. Premier Joseph Landieu's government faces a crucial vote of confidence today on the German rearmament plan, which Moscow bitterly opposes.

The note obviously was designed to hurt Laniel's chances of surviving as an exponent of German rearmament, officials said.
They pointed out that most French groups have demanded
another attempt to ease world
tensions through a conference with Moscow, and the Soviet note played into the hands of these groups.

But regardless of the outcome of the French Cabinet crisis, observers said the Soviet proposal was certain to be a major topic at next week's scheduled meeting in Bermuda between President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Laniel, if his government survives the vote of confidence.

The Russian news agency Tass announced the note. The announcement was displayed promi-nently by all Soviet newspapers.

Missing Pilot Found Dead

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Nov. 27.
(UP)—Search crews found the body of a Louisville, Ky., business man in the wreckage of his missing plane near here Thursday but planned to continue the search today for a second pilot long overdue on a flight from Louisville to South Bend.

The twin-engine craft piloted
by William Gatchel, 47, was spotted from the air by William Rowell of the Louisville Civil Air Patrol about 41 hours after Gatchel took off from Evansville
for a 59-minute flight to Louisville. The plane crashed on a rugged hillside three miles southwest of here.

Gatchel, who left Evansville
Tuesday evening, was returning from a Kentucky hunting trip.
He was the father of two sons.

Cause of the crash was not known, but CAP officials believed he may have been preparing to land in Louisville, about 10 miles away, when the plane went down.

Still missing was Don Dickson,

LITTLE BOY LOST

—Missing Pilot

Dowagiac, Mich., who took off in a private plane from Louisville at 8:46 p. m. Wednesday for South Bend, where he should have landed 2 1/2 hours later.

CAP officials appealed to private pilots to join in the search, which they said would be concentrated between Louisville and Indianapolis. It was believed Dickson had not flown past southern Indiana, since he did not radio the Indianapolis airport tower of his position.

Local CAP Alerted

The local Squadron of the CAP was alerted to join in the search for the first missing plane and pilot at 1:15 a. m. Wednesday.

Ray Scheriber, pilot, and Ray Hurst, observer, searched for over two hours by plane without results. The squadron radio was operated by Lt. Robert Sponsel from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. the last two days and was in operation again today on the second search.

The local Civil Air Patrol, at present, has two planes and one radio unit, but the members are doing a splendid job with what equipment they have.

President Plays Golf With Son

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 27.—(UP)—The weather man reversed himself and promised President Eisenhower another good day for golf today on his six-day Thanksgiving holiday at the Augusta National Golf Club.

The President already has played three rounds on the Masters' course—one each day since his arrival last Tuesday. Today he planned a round with his son, Maj. John Eisenhower, who flew here Thursday from Ft. Benning, Ga.

The President, in expressing appreciation for his son's presence at a family Thanksgiving dinner of turkey and all the fix-n's, voiced the hope that the United States never again will be required to go to war.

In a few remarks before carving his 39-pound turkey, Mr. Eisenhower solemnly said that the most important thing the nation has to be thankful for this Thanksgiving is that "we sit down to our traditional Thanksgiving feast without the fear of the casualty list hanging over us."

"We no longer have to worry about the killing in Korea," he said.

The President's son fought in the Korean War and the chief executive voiced thanks for having him back with his parents, wife and three children—all of whom were at the family table.

In addition to being "very, very thankful" for John's safe return from Korea Mr. Eisenhower said he was "certain that I speak for thousands and thousands of other families in America when I say, may we never again have to have our loved ones go off to war."

Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower planned to return to Washington late Sunday. Their son, daughter-in-law and three small grandchildren—David S., Barbara Anne 4 and Susan, 2—will stay with them until then.

COLOR SCHEME NOTE: CURTAINS MATCH CANARY

HIGHLAND FALLS, N. Y.—Nov. 26 (UP)—Someday, you may be able to buy a canary to match your red and white kitchen curtains.

Mrs. Max Stroppe has a cabinet stocked with 200 birds and through cross-breeding them, she hopes to produce a cardinal canary.

She started five years ago with a pair of Harz Mountain canaries. Today, her birds run the gamut of all shades of yellow and orange; some are a soft bluish-gray; others are cinnamon, even apricot-colored.

The cinnamon and apricot shades come closest so far to Mrs. Stroppe's goal.

By crossing a Venezuelan black-headed red skin with a canary, she obtained a dark mahogany-shaded male, and she's hoping that as time goes on the red strain will grow stronger and result in the first all-red canary.

CLOSING OUT SALE

Abel Lost Chance To Set Hand on Diamond Return

As Mr. Champion pointed out recently, Mr. Muzzy is weak only on bidding, dummy play and defense. Of course, Mr. Muzzy plays so much bridge that by the law of averages he is bound to get a good result now and then. And he might get credit for a good bid or a good play if he would only refrain from making any comment after the hand.

The bidding:

North East South West

1 C Pass 1 H Pass

3 H Pass 4 N T Pass

5 S Pass 6 N H All Pass

Take today's hand for example. He and Miss Brash bid like mad to reach a contract of six hearts. As you see, the defenders held all four kings, a queen and two jacks. I'll leave it up to you to decide whether Mr. Muzzy deserves any credit for the very fine result on the hand.

Mr. Champion opened the jack of diamonds, dummy ducked and Mr. Abel won with the king and made the rather pointless return of another diamond.

Mr. Muzzy won with the queen. He laid down the jack of hearts and let it ride when Mr. Champion did not cover. Next he led a small heart to dummy's ace. Mr. Abel discarding a club.

He now cashed the ace of diamonds on which he pitched a club. This was followed with a small space to the ace. All of his remaining hearts were now cashed. On the lead of the last trump Mr. Champion was down to the king and queen of clubs and the king of spades.

In dummy were the queen of spades and the ace and jack of clubs. If Mr. Champion discarded his spade, dummy's queen would be good. If he played a club, both of dummy's clubs would win.

His actual discard was the king of spades and Miss Brash had a few agonizing moments as Mr. Muzzy puzzled over what to discard from the board. Finally he played the jack of clubs then led a club to win the last two tricks in dummy.

Mr. Muzzy had executed a Vienna coup and a beautiful squeeze. But he felt called upon to make a comment. "I knew it was hopeless partner," he said, "so all I could do was to run my hearts and hope somebody made a mistake. Champion's play of the king of spades proves that even the best make the wrong discard sometimes."

Cubs Rap Attica For Win No. Two

Greencastle basketball fans really enjoyed Thanksgiving Thursday as result of the 59 to 47 victory over Attica registered by the Tiger Cubs in the local gym Wednesday evening. It was the second straight win for Coach Tom Goldsberry's proteges after three setbacks.

The Cubs had command of the hardwood court situation throughout, leading 24 to 19 at the half.

Performances of R. J. Westfall, Chuck Saathoff and Chuck Pingleton were especially pleasing to the Purple and Gray rooters.

Jimmie Cowger with 23 points was the main spark plug in the Greencastle offense and he was ably assisted by Charlie Long.

Bob Collins, veteran guard, was still on the hospital list and did not see action against the Attica Red Ramblers. Bob also missed the Washington and Martinsville games last weekend.

Joe Gorman turned in a creditable job but was forced to leave the fray in the second half when he committed his fifth personal foul.

Others competing against Attica in the Greencastle lineup were Duncan and Braden.

The local B team also came through with flying colors as they rolled over the youthful Red Ramblers to the tune of 46 to 32 to start the evening's proceedings.

Thorntown, 49; Roachdale, 46

Roachdale's Hawks lost a hard fought encounter to Thorntown high school, 49 to 46, in a net tilt played at Dover Wednesday night.

Thorntown gained a 7-point margin at the end of the first quarter, 17-10, and Roachdale was unable to overcome this lead. The Hawks pulled up to within 3 points at halftime, 25-23, and were only trailing by two points at the three-quarter post, 37-35.

Hart was high man for Roachdale with 13 points.

Fillmore, 53; Bainbridge, 48

Old Putnam county rivals met for the first time Wednesday evening when Fillmore and Bainbridge clashed at Bainbridge. When the smoke of battle had cleared away, the Cardinals had downed the host Pointers, 53 to 48.

It was an exciting contest all the way with Fillmore out in front by three points at the half, 23 to 20.

Ross was the big gun for the East Putnam Cards while Adams' long shots kept Bainbridge in the running.

It was a perfect night for Fillmore as the Cardinal B squad won the preliminary tilt.

Next Wednesday, Dec. 2, Fillmore will play Amo and this game will be played on the Canterbury College gymnasium floor at Danville.

Eminence, 74; Belle Union, 42

Belle Union traveled to Eminence Wednesday night where the Jefferson township Panthers were defeated by the Morgan county outfit, 74 to 42, in a rather one-sided high school basketball fray.

Reelsville 49; Van Buren, 45

Reelsville's Indians sent visiting Van Buren home on the short end of a 49 to 45 decision Wednesday evening in an interesting high school net scrap.

Coach Bob Gray's Reelsville squad held a 26 to 19 advantage at the rest intermission.

Both teams collected 11 free throws, the Indians winning the game on 19 field goals as compared to 17 by Van Buren.

The curtain raiser was won by the Reelsville B aggregation, 33 to 27.

LOOKING... AT LIFE

By Erich Brandeis

"Anxious Mother" put her problem before one of the etiquette arbiters whose column appears in my newspaper.
"My son is three-years-old now," she wrote. "Is he too young to be taught that it is proper to arise when visitors come?"
"Teach him now," was the answer, "and long before he is five, this courtesy will be second nature to him."

We went to a standing help in the new auditorium of the nearby Redding School.
A large crowd of grown-ups and kids were present, and I sat back in a corner and watched them.

These were average kids—not too rich for their own good, not too poor to be cowed by life's pressing problems.
The plumber's son was there, dancing with the banker's daughter. The doctor's twins, both dressed alike, were having a wonderful time with the merchant's, the manufacturer's, the lawyer's daughters.

It was a typical American crowd—such as you can see at almost any dance in any auditorium in any town in the country.

I don't think any of these kids were taught at the age of three to stand up for visitors.
But, as I watched them, I could not see a single sign of that much advertised children's disease, "juvenile delinquency," anywhere.

Once one of the kids bumped into me. "Oh, please excuse me," she said. "I didn't mean to do it."

I felt very, very old at the moment, but I got over it quickly.

That youngster, not more than 13, had learned her manners SOMEWHERE—perhaps at home, perhaps in school, perhaps in her church.

But she HAD good manners—just as good as the kids of my own school and church and home days ever had.

They were dancing differently than they did in my days. It was much faster, there was quite a bit more whirling, and I noticed that the few adults who tried to keep up with the modern music couldn't possibly make the grade. They lasted two or three rounds, then sat down puffing and panting.

As the evening went on and quite a few of the older ones went home, the kids got livelier and livelier. First they had done their jitterbugging in the dark corners. But now they came out into the bright lights and danced in the middle of the floor.

The whole affair was most enjoyable and extremely decent. Both kids and adults behaved beautifully—probably for each other's sake.
There seems to be a tremendous fear of a rise in juvenile delinquency. It is bad that it is so, and the rise itself is frightening.

But, on the other hand, you can find trouble anywhere if you go looking for it.
I certainly found no sign of it at that affair—nor will you find it at any of YOUR hometown affairs.
Juvenile delinquency breeds primarily in the slums. The best way to prevent it is to keep your home free of moral sCum.
It is surprising how quickly sCum can change into sLum.
